HDM CORP. BUILDS BUSINESS, CREATES COMMUNITY

Omaha, NE – Every year since 1996, HDM Corp. has contributed at least 10 percent of its profits back to the Omaha community. Even with recent changes in its business and in the nation's economy, HDM Corp. continues to believe that the best way to build business is through creating community.

Since the company's inception, HDM Corp. has contributed time and money to many community charities, foundations and events. Some of the beneficiaries include Project Harmony, Children's Hospital's Playroom, Ronald McDonald House's Meditation Room, the Omaha Symphony, OperaOmaha, the Omaha Performing Arts, Nebraska Children's Home Society, the Nebraska Choral Arts Society, the Henry Doorly Zoo, The United Way of the Midlands, and more. HDM Corp. has also been a multi-year sponsor of the American Heart Association's Sweetheart Program and continues to contribute to many other fundraising events of the American Heart Association.

“In the current economic climate, I think it’s important for small businesses in Omaha to band together to support our community,” said CEO Lisa Lechowicz. “HDM Corp. is a big supporter of the ‘pay it forward’ philosophy.”

HDM Corp., founded in 1996, is a woman-owned, Omaha-based company dedicated to helping its nationwide clients find a better way to administer health care. HDM Corp. recognizes that there is no single solution that satisfies every clients’ needs. The company develops customized solutions that meet the unique needs of its customers.
